

Health and Physical Education Teacher

Full time and part-time roles available – commencing 2024

The Southport School's Preparatory School provides an outstanding education for boys. The Preparatory School is very proud of its dedicated team of teachers who understand the special ways in which boys learn and who carefully nurture authentic relationships based upon mutual respect and genuine care. These relationships are the key to the Preparatory School's success as boys and teachers work together in setting and achieving Academic, Sporting and Cultural goals.

The Southport School, one of Queensland's leading schools for boys, is seeking a dedicated and highly-skilled primary school trained Health and Physical Education specialist for a full time teaching position within the Preparatory School commencing in 2024.

We are looking for intuitive and innovative primary school educators, with a willingness to go above and beyond and who fully understand the benefits of building positive relationships with their students across the breadth of the school's comprehensive academic, pastoral and co-curricular program.

The successful candidate will have an outstanding knowledge of relevant curriculum and teaching pedagogy and be excited by the opportunity to be part of a professional learning community. An understanding and appreciation of the learning styles of boys would be considered an advantage and as a member of the TSS team.

To be considered for this HPE position, candidates will have a genuine passion for Health and Physical Education and sports coaching in the Primary Years. Teaching duties will include teaching from Preschool to Year 6. We are seeking an outstanding professional who is confident teaching across a range of sports and will be a role model within the department and across the wider school community.

The successful candidate will be expected to make a significant contribution to the co-curricular sporting program throughout the year. This added responsibility carries with it additional remuneration, dependent on the level of involvement.

Experience in one or more of the following Sports is desirable, but not essential. Basketball, Cricket, Football, Rugby or Track and Field.

Applications should outline the candidate's teaching experience and contain a philosophy statement on teaching beliefs and practices. Applications will close on Monday 6 November at 8.00am and only applications submitted online will be considered.
