

Full time Music Teacher – Preschool to Year 6 Preparatory School

- Would you like to be part of a dynamic team and teach in a well-resourced, innovative and caring environment?
- Are you passionate and enthusiastic about boys' education and the value inclusion of music into their learning experience provides?

The Southport School, one of Queensland's leading schools for boys, is seeking a dedicated and highly skilled Music Teacher with demonstrated experience teaching classroom music from Preschool (Kinder) to Year 6, commencing in 2025.

We are looking for an intuitive and innovative professional, with a willingness to go above and beyond; an educator who is committed to holistic involvement in school life, including academic, cultural, and/or sporting.

The successful candidate will have: -

- Knowledge of the Australian Curriculum V9 in The Arts.
- Keyboard, Accompanist, Ensemble directing and/or instrumental skills.
- A Cert III in Early Childhood Education or a willingness to acquire this. (TSS will, for the right candidate, facilitate this with the payment of course costs and some allocated time).
- The ability to participate in a P-6 co-curricular program.
- Current QCT registration or the capacity to gain this.

An understanding and appreciation of the learning styles of boys would be considered an advantage and as a member of the TSS team, you will be willing to support the stated values and Christian Ethos of the School.

All Music staff have the opportunity to be involved in the school's extensive co-curricular program and applicants should identify within their application areas in which they could contribute.

Applications should outline the candidate's teaching experience and contain a philosophy statement on teaching beliefs and practices and be directed to Mr Jeff Symms, Head of Preparatory School.

Only applications received online and by 4pm Friday 16 August 2024 will be considered.

TSS is an equal employment opportunity employer.